

Site shelters

We currently have five wooden shelters around the camping area that are used by campers for storing food and cooking as required.

Built over 40 years ago, these basic, old and weathered structures are now beyond repair and need replacing.

We are planning to replace each one of these shelters with a mixture of modern cabins and shelters.

Type 1

Type 2

Type 3

