

South London

Take the challenge

Clothes peg race

You will need ...

- Ten or more clothes pegs for each player (in bowls/containers)
- A string line strung between two chairs (for each player)

What to do...

- Each player has a container with the same number of pegs (ideally at least ten pegs each).
- When you say 'go' they have to clip their pegs onto the line against the clock using one hand.
- The person with them most on the line at the end of a minute is the winner.

Round two – Try the same thing with blindfolds.

Bouncing balloons

You will need ...

- Rubber balloons

What to do...

Blow-up 5 balloons. Time how long each player can keep them all in the air. Player can only touch one balloon at a time.

Kim's game

You will need ...

- Selection of small items
- A tray
- A tea towel

What to do...

- Place a number of items (at least 12) on a tray – fork, spoons, pencil, pen, stones, book and so on.
- Cover the tray with a tea towel.

Game one...

- Uncover the tray and let the players look (but not touch) the items for one minute.
- After a minute cover the tray
- Each player then lists on a piece of paper all the articles they can remember
- The player who remembers most wins the game.

Game two...

- Uncover the tray and let the players look (but not touch) the items for one minute.
- After a minute ask the player to turn around (looking away from the tray)
- Remove 1,2,3 items
- Players then shout out the missing items
- The player who remembers most wins the game.
